Representatives of IFCC Corporate Members

Dear Colleagues,

The Task Force on Outcome Studies in Laboratory Medicine (TF-OSLM) promotes the Value of Laboratory Medicine by gathering the evidence to demonstrate the critical role of laboratory medicine in clinical decision making and healthcare delivery.

We are inviting nominations for two Member positions for the term of office 2024-2026.

The candidates should have extensive experience in the area of work of the Task Force. For further information, please visit:
<https://ifcc.org/executive-board-and-council/eb-task-forces/task-force-on-outcome-studies-in-laboratory-medicine-tf-oslm/>

Much of the work of the TF committees is conducted by email, but TF-OSLM meets monthly via Zoom and in person once per year.

All National Society Members are requested to encourage appropriate members to apply for this position. Applicants who are not selected as members may be eligible for corresponding membership.

Nominations should be directly sent to the IFCC Office (smeralda.skenderaj@ifcc.org) by February 29th, 2024.

The information must include:

- Letter of support from the National Society/Company;
- Curriculum Vitae of the nominee describing the professional and/or academic career (including a list of publications), particularly highlighting the issues which could be important for the selection;
- One page of letter of interest.

We look forward to receiving your nominations.

With kind regards

Prof. Tomris Ozben
IFCC President
